a perfect day in
SEVILLE

ABOUT SEVILLE

Seville's historic center, lorded over by a colossal Gothic cathedral, is an intoxicating mix of palaces, baroque churches and winding medieval lanes. Flamenco clubs keep the intimacy and intensity of this centuries-old tradition alive while aristocratic mansions recall the city's past. Seville is about eating tapas in a crowded bar or seeing out the end of the day over a drink on buzzing plaza. The sevillanos have long since mastered the art of celebrating.

facts

Population: 1.1 million | Country: Spain

Language: Spanish, English | Nickname: City of Towers

Noteable Landmarks: Plaza de Espana, Alcazar

1

START YOUR DAY Bar el Comercio

Many claim they're the best churros in Seville, and they might just be right! This charming bar, Bar Comercio, was founded in 1904 and is still part of the Rivera family. You might have to wait for a table here, as their breakfasts are famous throughout the city.

MORNING ACTIVITY

Aire Ancient Baths

Relax and recharge over at the Aire Ancient Baths. Aire is located in an incredible Mudéjar-style palace over 500 years old. It's known for its incredible spa treatments, but is worth a stop just to check out the architecture, Andaluz-style courtyard and Hamman bath rooms.

MID DAY EATS Bodeguita Romero

No bar combines a traditional atmosphere with beautifully prepared Sevillano cuisine quite like Bodeguita Romero. The locally run restaurant embraces the homemade cooking style of this region! Go for the Papas Aliñas (marinated potatoes) doused with olive oil and mixed with green onions and peppers and the Presa Ibérico (Iberian pork). Pair any dish with a glass of local sherry and soak up the local atmosphere!

AFTERNOON ACTIVITY

Alcázar Palace

Don't miss a visit to Seville's Alcázar palace. You'll immediately see why the palace is a UNESCO World Heritage site! After touring the palace take some time to stroll through the orange-tree-filled gardens. Try the labyrinth maze and enjoy the beauty of the gardens at your own pace.

TIME TO DINE Brunilda

La Brunilda is one of the hotspots for tapas in Seville (there is always a queue!) - specializing in elevated versions of traditional flavors. The venue is incredibly chic with a beautiful indoor space with bistro-style seating and an ever-evolving menu displayed on a chalkboard. Don't miss the fish fritters (buñuelos de bacalo) with a pear aioli.

LATE NIGHT FUN La Casa del Flamenco

Discover flamenco like you've never seen it before in your life! Don't miss the show at La Casa del Flamenco right in the heart of the Santa Cruz neighborhood that journeys through the different branches of Flamenco. This stunning display is one of a kind to Seville and the smaller setting provides an intimate atmosphere. Not to be missed!

a note from bri

Seville is a city that I keep coming back to. It charms you and brings you back time and time again - not needing the cultural punch of Madrid or the pizzazz of Barcelona. I hope you come see it for yourself and find yourself as a sevillano for a day! If you'd like help planning the perfect Sevillian experience for you, contact Milk + Honey Travels today!
